Petition No. 1485, dated 22nd June 1901, from Acharyapurusha Tirumale Srirangachar of Srirangarajapur Agrahar, appealing against the orders of the late Muzrai Superintendent, in the matter of certain annual allowances due to him and three other Acharyapurushas, during the Krishnaraj Mudi utsavam in the Sri Narayanaswami temple at Melkote, Seringapatam Taluk.

AND,

Correspondence ending with letter No. 330, dated 18th June 1903, from the Deputy Commissioner Mysore District.

No. 2999-3000—MUZ. F. 150-92, DATED BANGALORE, 4TH APRIL 1904.

ORDER THEREON.—The facts of the case are as follow :—

1 Out of the Tasdik allotment for the Krishnaraj Mudi utsavam in the Sri Narayanaswami temple at Melkote, a sum of Rs. 1,336-8-6 per annum is fixed to be paid, in cash and in the shape of provisions, to the Sri Parakalaswami Matt, to Archak Alasingra Bhatta of the said temple and to four Acharyapurushas, as detailed in the margin. The payment of the allowances to all of these are for the past many years, being made in cash only, and not in cash and in kind, owing to variation in prices. Questions arose in 1893, that the Tasdik amount payable to them was for the specific purpose of each of them performing Samaradhane during the ten days of the Krishnaraj Mudi utsavam; that the Archak and the four Acharyapurushas had not been performing Santarpane, in fulfilment of the conditions of the grant, and yet they continued to receive the allowances and that the Parakalaswami Matt got the Samaradhane performed during the Vyramudi festival, instead of during the Krishnaraj Mudi utsavam. The Muzrai Superintendent thereupon held a local enquiry and, after satisfying himself that the Matt performed the Santarpane during the Vyramudi utsavam, on the ground that a larger number of people visited the place on that occasion and that it was more advantageous to the pilgrims, issued an order to continue the practice. In the case of the Archak also he ordered the continuance of the allowance to him because he since produced certain documents to show that the Tasdik amount was an honorarium to him. In regard to the four Acharyapurushas noted in the margin, who are the representatives of the original grantees, he ordered the withholding of the payment in 1893, pending enquiry and decided in 1895, that the continuance of the allowance to them depended upon their performing Samaradhane to Brahmins. Further in 1898, he framed rules directing the regular attendance of the Acharyapurushas during the Krishnaraj Mudi utsavam, and specifying the number of persons to be fed by them and the amount of Dakshane to be given to each of them. The present appeal is against these orders.

2. The chief point for consideration in this case is the interpretation to be put on the Tasdik Pattis of 1817-18 and 1829, under which the allowances were sanctioned by His Highness the late Maharaja Krishnaraj Wadeyar Bahadur III. The Tasdik Patti of the year Bahudhanya (1817-18) first recites the conditions of the grant in regard to the Sri Parakalaswami Matt and provides for Samaradhane being given by that Matt to a large number of people (1,000) every day, during the ten days of the utsavam. On the other hand, in the recital as regards the Acharyapurushas, no mention is made of Samaradhane, but it is merely said that to each of the Samukhada Vidwans (four Acharyapurushas) provisions for 50 persons a day and Dakshine of five Varahas a day should be given every year. It is further observed from the Tasdik Patti of 1829, (which is a revised one and which is now in force), that there is a great difference in Dakshine fixed for the Matt and the Acharyapurushas, 30 Varahas being allotted for 3,000 persons in the case of the former, and 100 Varahas for four of the latter. From these Tasdik Pattis and other documents produced by the appellant along with his appeal petition, as well as from a copy of the letter on the same subject dated 10th March 1842, from the Secretary to the Commissioner of Mysore, to the Superintendent of the Ashtagram Division, it may be clearly construed that the Dakshane was intended to be a personal gift to the Acharyapurushas themselves, and not for the followers and attendants; that the entire allowance of Rs. 140-7-7 to each was intended to be an honorarium, to feed them and their followers and that it was granted with a view to induce them to attend at Melkote during the said utsavam.

3. The question of this Santarpane seems to have been raised more than once and decided in favor of the Acharyapurushas, as is observed from the Commissioner's order of 1842 and the Hassan Muzrai Officer's order of 1872.

4. Taking all these circumstances into consideration the Government are pleased to direct that no Samaradhane be insisted upon in the case of the four Acharyapurushas.

5. The continuance of the allowance will however depend in future upon two considerations viz, the personal worth of the Acharyapurushas and their attending the function in a befitting style with sufficient followers etc. Mere ancestry is not the only ground for continuing it. The representative must be worthy of the honor and held in public esteem as Acharyapurusha. If these two conditions are fulfilled the honorarium or allowance may be granted.

6 These conditions have been held to be fulfilled by Tirumale Srirangachar, the present appellant and his allowances in full may therefore be granted together with the arrears of the previous years. The bill amounting to Rs. 421-6-9 for the years 1893-94 to 1895-96 received from the Deputy Commissioner with his Rubkar dated 21st December 1901, is accordingly sanctioned and forwarded to the Comptroller to audit and return to the Deputy Commissioner for payment to the party concerned.

7. As regards Ukkalagere Jodidar Srinivasa Raghavachar, who is one of the other three Acharyapurushas, Government consider that he has shown himself unfit for the honors, by his past conduct and that even his next brother (named Rangachar) is held as an outcast in connection with his deceased mother's ceremonies. As the said Jodidar Srinivasa Raghavachar and his brother Rangachar have thus proved themselves undeserving of the position to which they lay claim, every honor due to the former in the Sri Narayanaswami temple at Melkote, including the daily honors of Tutha etc., as well as the allowance payable to him during the Krishnaraja Mudi utsavam must therefore be stopped forthwith.

8. As regards the claims of the other two Acharyapurushas, viz, Rangachar and Tatachar, the Government are of opinion that their claims must also be settled in accordance with the views expressed in para 5 above. From the records it is observed that they regularly attended the utsavams every year since 1893, but it is not clear whether they attended the function in a befitting style with sufficient followers etc, and whether they are worthy of the honor and held in public esteem as Acharyapurushas. The Deputy Commissioner is requested to submit a detailed report on these points, on receipt of which orders will issue as regards the allowances payable to them.

9. The Archak Narasaraja Bhatta who was the representative of the original grantee Alasingra Bhatta having been dismissed in 1893 in connection with the temple theft case, and he having since died, his allowances of the previous years at the rate of Rs. 37-3-2 per annum are reported to have been brought under savings and credited to the funds of the temple. This procedure should be continued in future also.
